

Anahita The Resort To Host the Mauritius Golf Masters

11 – 18 December 2011

8 June 2011 – Anahita The Resort, Mauritius (www.anahita.mu) is delighted to announce that it will be hosting the Mauritius Golf Masters from 11-18 December 2011.

The tournament, which features 20 of the best-ranked players on the Allianz French Pro Tour and 10 invited players from the European Pro Tour, including last year's champion Nicolas Colsearts, will be taking place on the resort's spectacular 18-hole championship golf course, designed by Ernie Els.

This will be the second year running that the resort has hosted this competition, following the success of last year's inaugural tournament.

In addition to the professional competition there will also be several opportunities for amateur golfers to enjoy a round of golf, either with or without a pro. Two full days of PRO-AM competitions will be taking place from the 13 to 14 December whilst an Alliance Format and an Open Amateur Competition will be taking place from 15 to 16 December (subscription rates apply).

Blending seamlessly into the spectacular natural scenery of Mauritius' East coast and offering breathtaking views of the lagoon and mountains, the 7,372 yard par 72 golf course at Anahita is also the only course in the Indian Ocean designed to USGA standards. Course facilities include a Mauritian styled clubhouse with pro shop, restaurant, bar, locker rooms, 200 square meter fitness centre and Golf Academy.

For more information including subscription rates and accommodation rates please visit www.anahita.mu